

The evening shadows softly fall on years of wonderful memories at Crestline High. The shadows echo the scurrying between classes, the joyous laughter of friends and classmates, the excitement of Friday night's game, the nervous expectation before the curtain goes up, the formality of tuxedos and formals and the exhilarated tension of graduation day. Yes, the shadows have fallen for the class of 1981 at Crestline High, but the dawn of a new and challenging life faces each of you in the years ahead. All of us, who remain behind, pray that your shadow grows straight and tall and casts afar.

PPG Industries is Proud

We're proud of many things at our Crestline glass fabricating plant. One is being part of the Richland-Crawford County community. Another is the high-quality fabricated glass that we produce there. And we're proud to be known in the community for dedication to the improvement of the quality of life in the area.

We're a concerned part of a growing community. PPG and its loyal employees are sharing their time, talent and money to maintain and improve the social, cultural and educational fabric of the area.

This involvement reflects our commitment as responsible corporate and individual citizens.

There's something else that we're proud of—and that's the Crestline High School 1981 graduating seniors.
